

So they... found mary and joseph, and the baby, who was lying in the manger.

luke 2:16

Is there still no room in the inn?

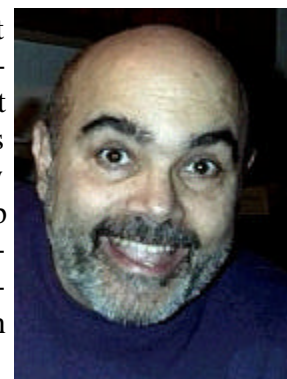

To find Christ anew and alive we must often journey far. We must journey past places that are filled with busy noise, anger, distress, sorrow, and indifference. The magi, shepherds, and many others had to leave their places of comfort and tread through the wildernesses of their hearts to find the Messiah. And indeed their reward was great. Once we find Him, what are we willing to commit to? How will the encounter change our lives forever? Will we realize that we are now involved in a relationship that is to embody our entire being? Can we live this today, tomorrow and forever? Let us seek these answers together in prayer and conversation.
